i. Kadri section.

The last two are checked every week by a police official.

Operation of Kadri Section

3. This section is found in every ministry and also in every governmental and semi-governmental office. Its task is to keep a list of all the personnel employed by the office or enterprise and maintain the biography of each person up to date: courses completed, former employment, political training, family status, relatives, friends, and etc.
4. The Kadri office is also charged with expressing an opinion on whether a new applicant should be hired. This is to make sure that all responsible positions are filled by politically reliable persons. It is not experience they are looking for, but politically approved persons.
5. The Kadri sections and offices are headed by former political prisoners or former partisans, all enrolled in the Bulgarian Communist Party. They are generally persons of mediocre talent who are completely trusted by and devoted to the regime.
